Dear Dr. Holtzclaw:

I am anxious to have your opinion on the enclosed. It would seem to me that Thos. Lane must have married a Holt. Whether it was Wm. Hott's daughter seems doubtful, if Mrs. Davis copied the will correctly. I am sending to Surry for a copy to clear up this point. I also want a copy of the contract of Oct. 20, 1726. Why would John Ruffin sign this with Mary Holt, the widow, unless he too had an interest in the slaves? I have not gone into the Ruffin family except for Mr. Boddy's article, but it would appear that John Ruffin could have inherited an interest thru Wm., who perhaps also married a Holt (between 1720-1725).

It seems logical to me that with Lane dying without a will, the court would have either his relatives, or in-laws, sign his estate. Thos. Lane's father was still living; he died in 1733, willing land to his grandson Thos. Lane "the plantation his father lived on". Also, grandson, John Lane and grandson Joseph Lane, and dtr. Mary Hart. No Lanes or Harts signed, but Wm. Holt did, and Thos. Newsom, who married Martha Holt, and Wm. Ruffin, who seems to have been some kin to the Holts, perhaps by marriage. Mr. Boddy, in his article on the Ruffins, says: "Wm. Ruffin (ca 1683-1739) married Faith Gray, who died in 1720, and secondly, Mrs. John Newsom in 1725. Do you know of any way Faith Gray could have been kin to the Holts?"

I am writing Mrs. Savedge for copies of the wills and marriage agreement, which I hope might shed some light on the above.

Cordially,

Charles Barham, Jr.

Thomas Lane Est., Mary Lane, Amrx. May 12, 1721.
Signed- Wm Ruffin, John Newsum, Wm Holt.

Question: Could the widow, Mary Lane, have been born Mary Holt, daughter of William Holt and Elizabeth Seward?

Facts:

Wm Holt's will was probated 18 May, 1726. In it he named

Sons, William, Thomas and Charles Daughters, Tapphanas Newsum, Ann & Mary.

(Tapphanas Newsum, nee Holt, married abt 1732 Thos Newsum, according to Dr. Holtzclaw's article on the Newsum family. If Wm Holt's will, probated May 18, 1726, and written 28 Sept., 1725, names his daughter, Tapphanas Newsum, as Mrs. Davis states in her Surry Will Book, obviously Dr. Holtzclaw must have this date wrong. Also, if he did name "Daughter Tapphanas Newsum, AND, Daughter Mary was the wife of the deceased Thos Lane, why did he only say "Daughter Mary"?)

Fact 2:

John Newsum (born 1674/5, died 1724 married Sarah Crafford. After Newsum's death his widow married Wm Ruffin, son of Robert Ruffin and his wife, Elizabeth Prime.

Another John Newsum (wal, Wm 2, Wm 3) born abt 1700, died 1770, married Martha Holt. It would seem that it was this John Newsum who signed Thos Lane's estate. Dr. Holtzclaw says this John Newsum's wife, Martha was the daughter of Thos Holt, and his wife, Frances Mason. Since Thos Holt and Wm Holt were brothers, then William Holt was the uncle of Thos Newsum's wife.

All this seems to strongly indicate that Mary Lane, widow of Thos., who died in 1721, was born a Holt.

Other facts: (1) Thos Lane & Wm Holt witnessed the will of John Clarke dated 2 Oct., 1715.

(2) Thos Lane lived adjacent to Wm Holt:

"Thos Lane appeared in court & acknowledged deed of sale to Wm George. Jane Lane, his wife, relinquished her dower rights. The land sold was part of a tract patented by Thos Lane in 1682, that he left to his two sons, Thos & Joseph, and is adjacent to Wm Holt and John Clarke. (Bk 1713/18, P 55) 1715

(3) On Oct. 20, 1736, Mary Holt, widow of Thos Holt, entered into a marriage contract with Francis Price. Before this agreement was consummated Mary Holt & John Ruffin deeded some slaves to Mary Holt's children Henry and James Holt. The articles of agreement were witnessed by John Ruffin, John Newsum and Robert Ruffin.

According to Boddie, Wm Ruffin married (1) Faith Gray, and (2) Mrs. John Newsum, nee Sarah Crafford.

Sept. 22, 1955

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Thanks a lot for the Isle of Wight Bk 3, and also your postcard. While on the subject of books, have you ever completed Southampton? I only have Bk 1, and would like the other when finished.

I certainly wish you would publish the Tith lists. I would think Mrs. Davis' book on Surry would help the sale, rather than hurt it, as one complements the other. If you don't publish it now, would you consider selling me a typewritten second copy, if one exists? I have partail lists only and am interested in:

Binns
Crawley
Edwards
Floods
Hunnicutts
Lanes

for the years 1671-1672-1676-1690-1691-1692-1693-1695-1696-1697
1699 and on as far as they go from there.

My Secretary has typed the Hunnicutt notes to 1776. She should finish them next week, but it's slow going as she has to do this in odd times. I have finished Edwards and Lane, in addition to Barham and Binns, and will send you copies of all as she retyped them.

Here's an IOW item you might have time to figure out. Edward Jones made his will Jan . 15, 1722, in IOW, and it was probated July 27, 1730. It is witnessed by Thomas Lane, and it is the only mention of Lane I have found in your county. It must mean something.

Edward Jones had a daughter Mary, mentioned in his will. Thos. Lane, who died in 1721, with out a will, had a wife named Mary. Could she have been Mary Jones?

The Lane line seems to run like this:

Thomas (1) Lane , born 1634, as he gave his age as 36 in 1670, and again as 39 in 1674(OB 1, P 380;W&D Bk 2, P. 360) married in 1661, Eliz. Jones, widow of Fulke Jones.

They had issue, Thomas(2) Lane, born 1662(Tithable in 1678)

Joseph Lane " 1667(about)

Thomas(1) Lane died in 1709, leaving all land and personal property to be divided between two sons, Thomas(2) Lane and Joseph Lane.

Thomas(2) Lane married (prior) 1693 Jane Flood. Proof: Nicholas Smith and wife, Elizabeth, Thomas Lane and wife, Jane, "being daughters of John Flood, late of Surry County, deed John Harrinton & Jno Nelson, 150 acres near the plantation of Mr. Arthur Allen, bounded by land formerly Coll John Flood, and now in the possession of Mr. Walter Flood".

Joseph Lane married Jilian(perhaps the widow of William Alderson, who died in Surry in 1683/4, leaving a wife, Jilian, and daughter Elizabeth. The Tith lists show the Lanes and Aldersons were close neighbors, and certainly Jilian is an odd name. She may have been born Jilian Waller, because in 1740, Thos Harris and wife, Sarah, Mary Lane, and Faith Lane, of Isle of Wight, deeded Henry Atkinson 112 acres in Surry, "Taken out of 330 acres patented by Thomas Waller in 16--Bk 1738/54, P 313)

At any rate, Joseph Lane became a resident of IOW for in 1710, "Joseph Lane, of Isle of Wight, and wife, Jilian, deeded Thos Lane of Surry, land left by his father".(Bk 1709/15, P 37) In 1715, Thomas Lane appeared in court and acknowledged a deed to Wm George, and Jane Lane, his wife, relinquished her dower rights. The land sold was part of a ~~parent~~ patent to "Thos Lane in 1682, that he left his two sons, Thomas and Joseph".(Bk 1713/18, P 55)

Thomas(2) Lane, and wife, Jane Flood, had a son, Thomas, who died in 1721, pre-deceasing his father by some 13 years. Proof: In 1721, "the Estate of Thomas Lane, Mary Lane, adm. Signed Wm Ruffin, John Newsum, Wm Holt. May 12th On Oct. 18, 1721, Thos Lane and Henry Hart deeded land to John Cocke. Jane Lane and Mary Hart acknowledged the deed. The land is described as "100 acres where Thos Hart now lives, bounded by Thos Binns and Holly Seward.

Thomas(2) Lane's will, dated Oct. 8, 1733, was probated Nov. 20, 1734: To Grandson Thomas Lane "the plantation his father lately lived on. He also mentions Grandsons John Lane and Joseph Lane, Daughter Mary Hart. Also Rebecca White and Rebecca Hart, relationship not specified.

Thomas(3) Lane, then (who died in 1721) had a sister Mary, who married Henry Hart, and ~~two sons, John and Joseph~~, and three sons, Thomas, John, and Joseph, born of his marriage with Mary(?).

The son, Thomas(4) Lane, I suspect of marrying Mary(Lancaster?) His will probated in 1770, mentions wife, Mary, Daughter Sally, and sons Ethelred and Thomas. His wife, Mary Lane's will(1794) makes a bequest to daughter Sally Barham and mentions Sally's daughter, Mary Ann Barham. In 1816, Lucy Lane, widow of the above Ethelred, deeded land to Joseph Barham Jr described as "bounded by the best known and reputed bounds of Thomas Lane Sr."

To go back to the first Joseph Lane. I can find no will but in 1719 Mathew Howell made his will in IOW and makes "his father" Joseph Lane Sr., ~~and~~ Joseph Lane Jr, and his(Howells') wife, Execs. Mathew Howell's est was app. by Thos Jarrell(among others). Wm Edwards made his will in 1721, in Surry, and left land to his son, Wm, "that I purchased of Josph Lane and Thos Jarrell

Other IOW-Surry tieups that I have discovered:

Thos Binns (who died in 1765) married 1st Margaret Jones, dtr of Mathew Jones. prior to 1744.

In 1748, Chas. Binns (Uncle of the above Thomas) deeded two tracts of land
(a) to James Dering of Isle of Wight "to Robt Hunnicutt's line"
(b) to Robert Hunnicutt "land Hunnicutt now lives on"

Derings' deed was dated Nov. 14th. Hunnicutts' Nov. 15th. Both were recorded on Nov. 15th, both were witnessed by David Drew, Samuel Bennett, and Chas. Binns Jr. The curious part is that John Ruffin, Benjamin Edwards and Richard Cocke acknowledged Robert Hunnicutt's signature, as "Robert Hunnicutt of Isle of Wight". It would appear, then, that Robert Hunnicutt and James Dering bought contiguous properties at the same time, and that Robert H. lived for a while in Isle of Wight.

Robert Hunnicutt died in 1778, and doesn't mention a wife. ~~I wonder if she could have been an Isle of Wight?~~ However, we know that he was married to Nancy Binns in 1767, when he sued Elizabeth (Crawley) Binns, exec. of Thos' estate (D 1765). Perhaps his first wife was an Isle of Wight, and after her death he moved back to Surry. I am wondering if he ever owned land in IOW?

Incidentally, the Hunnicutts, Lanes, and Binns were all very close neighbors in Surry, and it seems pertinent to me that they all had connections at some time or other in IOW. Maybe some day we can figure it out.

Very best wishes,

Charles Barkham Jr
